

The Bunya Pine was typically planted within church grounds as a "beacon" so that travelling parishioners could find the church.